

Testimonials

At NSPIR, we measure the success of our programs by what our clients and friends have to say about us. Here's a sample of what people are saying:

"Love the NSPIR website! Especially the history of paranormal research in your Library. I had no idea that Duke University was so instrumental in developing initial studies in America! Very impressive and courageous. Your site fosters immediate interest in your efforts." Caroline R., Raleigh, NC.

"I just visited your site...its absolutely wonderful... Best of luck to you! You must have some great inspiration in your life". Abdirahmannathalie via the internet.

"Very professional group of people - thanks for your help at my house!!! I feel very relieved". Charles H., Roxboro, NC.

"The investigation in our home, which was free, was conducted with our well-being in mind. We were very comfortable with the NSPIR team as they explained what they were doing and what we could expect from them. The information they provided helped my family understand what might be happening in our home. We are very grateful for their help". Melodie K., Youngsville, NC

"If your interest lie in the paranormal, then I think this group is for you. They seem professional and dedicated in finding concrete and scientific proof that paranormal activity is indeed present around us". Susan W., Raleigh, NC.

"It was an awesome experience! I have never felt & experienced so much paranormal phenomenon! I also enjoyed the socialization and getting to know my group members. I am very impressed with this group and the level of professionalism that George is leading with!" Jeremy, Sanford, NC.

"I felt that the atmosphere was great, as I stated before George did a wonderful job speaking. Everyone was very mature and asked good questions and I feel like there is a good mix of people with different levels of experience in investigation. I am glad that I am not the only beginner. I feel like the NSPIR team is very knowledgeable and we can learn a lot from them". Lori., Raleigh, NC.